THINKS JOHNSON COULD BEAT JEFF IN PRIME

Craftier Than Fitzsimmons and as Quick as Corbett, Cleveland Fans Sum Him Up.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, August 27. Jack Johnson's perfect judgment of distance and the timely manner in which he meets an opponent's counters ar noticeable characteristics of the great colored gladiator's boxing. He measures distance beautifully, and for a man of his immense size he is marvelously quick with both leads and counters. He has the easiest sort of style, and stops blows with little or no effort.

He frequently holds his guard low and open for the purpose of leading his opponent to try for the spot left un guarded. Then as the other fellow' blow starts for Jack, the latter's left or right jolt shoots across like a flash, and Mr. Opponent is given an abrapt little shock. Sometimes a myriad of stars of dazzling brightness pop into vision as the champion's blow lands. If the big fellow is in real earnest the recipient of the jolt betakes himself to the Land of Dreams for a brief visit. and returns none the worse for the experience within a few seconds. Johnson has the knack of landing a knockout blow down to a science, Fought Jeffries "Under Wraps,"

The fellow had apparently been holdng much in reserve prior to his battle with Jim Jeffries. He merely toyed with Tommy Burns and Stanley Ketthel, and judging by what was seen of him at the Star Theater last week, he fought Jeffries "under wraps," to use a turf expression. Had be gone after he ex-boilermaker earlier in the game he fight would not have gone half the e champion since Sullivan's days, with the exception of Jeffries. He is much faster than Jeff ever was. In fact, he is fast as Corbett, who was usidered the fastest heavweight of his ime, and is a much harder hitter and stronger than ever Corbett was, Craftier Than Fitzsimmons.

Bob Fitzsimmons was considered the craftiest ring general among the later hay heavyweight champions, but in this espect he could not show Jack Johnon anything. Johnson is a much more orainy fighter than he has been given of the game, has an exceptionally quies eye and a great amount of patience. He never loses his temper and is good hamored throughout all his battles. Jack is one of the best built men who ever donned a glove, and he has a great amount of endurance, as is natural in men of his race. Clevelanders, who had never seen Johnson until last week, are no longer wondering that Jim Jeffries tailed to "come back." Many of the wise ones are now expressing the opinion that this big chony skinned Apollo could have defeated Jeffries when the big white fellow was in the zenith of his enreer.

Ferguson a Possibility.

BOSTON, August 27.—George Little, has now taken Sandy Ferguson, the big gestions heavyweight of Boston, under his man gement, with the hope of eventually Johnson, and with that idea in mind he condition, and after he wins a few fights with him intends to challenge

OAHU LEAGUE TO DISCUSS ATHLETIC PARK DOINGS

The Oahn Baseball League will hold meeting this evening in the office of redit for. He knows all the fine points Senator Charley Chillingworth to settle up the unfinished business of the last ssion and devise ways and means to drain Athletic Park of the fathoms of water which have gushed into this depression in the earth's surface.

Somebody said the other day that there was a big force pump lying around somewhere that the taxpayers had invested in, and now was the time for them to get a game of baseball out of it. The fire department might pump out the reservoir, if the city would forego the protection from possible conflagration while all the engines in town were on the job. If there is going to be a game there next Sunday some system of evaporation or absorption on a large scale will have to be invented. the former manager of Jack Johnson, and the Oahu league is open to sug-
